

La Fleur

La Fleur is not easily put into a box. She's the pharmacist turned DJ. The dancer turned dance maker. La Fleur is maximal and minimal. Blessed with a unique presence and eclectic selection, she seduces any crowd into musical bliss. She likes her music intense & melodious. Forget any myths about Swedes being chilled; this lady has an arsenal of musical weapons that can whip any dance floor into a state of arousal.

Having started back in 2004, La Fleur quickly became known around the Stockholm scene, landing residencies at all the major clubs, including: Grodan Cocktail Club, Berns and Teatron/Esque; as well as numerous international bookings. La Fleur was ranked as nr 6 in "Sweden's top 100 DJ's list 2008" and was nominated in Scandinavian Music Convention (SMC) in the category "Best DJ" in 2008.

La Fleur is also one half of the dj-duo Housewives. Their club with the same name holds a residency at Berns 2:35:1 in Stockholm. Housewives was voted "Best Club" in People Choice Awards 2007 and "Best Club" in the Scandinavian Music Convention 2008.

La Fleur also regularly host the P3 Dans show on Swedish national radio, the biggest one in Scandinavia for electronic music.

Success has lead La Fleur to focus fulltime on her DJ-profession. She moved from Stockholm to Berlin in the autumn of 2007 in order to devote more time to producing her own style of music. In December 2008 she had her first remix, of David Ekenbäck's "Nairu", made together with Dj Nibc, released on Trunkfunk Records.

More info at www.djlafleur.com